Greg Falco has served in a variety of ministry roles, including youth pastor, worship leader, kids and family pastor, and campus director. He is now the lead pastor at Elim Life Church in Lima, NY. For many years as a child, Greg attended Good News Club, which was instrumental in his salvation and discipleship story. He graduated from Elim Bible Institute in 2002 and received his master's degree in organizational leadership from Regent University in 2014. He's passionate about worship, prayer, and communicating God's Word with the youngest to the oldest in a way that gives the spiritual and practical tools they need for life. Greg and his wife, Melanie, have four children and live in Lima, NY.
